

ASSOCIATE, BANKING AND FINANCING (3-6 years)

Company: national law firm

Location: Montreal

SUMMARY

Our client, a top-tier national law firm, is currently seeking an associate with 3-6 years' experience, specializing in banking and financial services.

The lawyer will represent the major chartered banks and financial institutions, syndicates of lenders as well as corporate borrowers on files that include regulatory advice, capital transactions, structured transactions, asset financings, sales and acquisitions, and project financing. He or she will be expected to manage files that span asset-based lending, innovative financing, hedging solutions, projects and project finance, asset-backed securitization, equipment financing, cross-border financing, derivative products and structured finance.

This lawyer will join a collaborative environment in the business law team of the firm. Candidates will ideally have experience in either national/international firms or strong boutique/regional firms. The position is also open to candidates who would consider an Of Counsel role.

Please note that only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.
